

QUARTERLY IMPACT REPORT

What teachers, parents and principals say about JPEF's strategic initiatives and events.

In January 2021, JPEF surveyed 210 educators and parents about their participation in JPEF's strategic initiatives during the second quarter of FY2021, including the School Leadership Initiative, the Teacher Leadership Initiative, and Parents Who Lead. Here are some of the key findings.

○ SATISFACTION WITH JPEF PROGRAMMING

About 90 percent of respondents were either satisfied or very satisfied with JPEF's programming.

○ CAPACITY TO SUPPORT STUDENTS

About 66 percent of respondents said participating in JPEF's programming had increased their capacity to support students.

○ CAPACITY TO SUPPORT SCHOOL STAFF

About 66 percent of respondents said participating in JPEF's programming had increased their capacity to support school staff.

○ ACCESS TO BEST PRACTICES

About 76 percent of respondents said participating in JPEF's initiatives increased their access to best practices and resources.

○ SCALING SOLUTIONS

Respondents estimated they shared their learning with 2,283 people, showing the potential to scale solutions district-wide.

○ CHALLENGES AND NEEDS

The COVID-19 pandemic continues to impact schools in dramatic ways. About 31 percent of respondents said COVID-19 hampered their work toward project goals. "This has been a difficult year," said one. "Achievement this year looks like keeping [students] alive and the staff as well," said another.

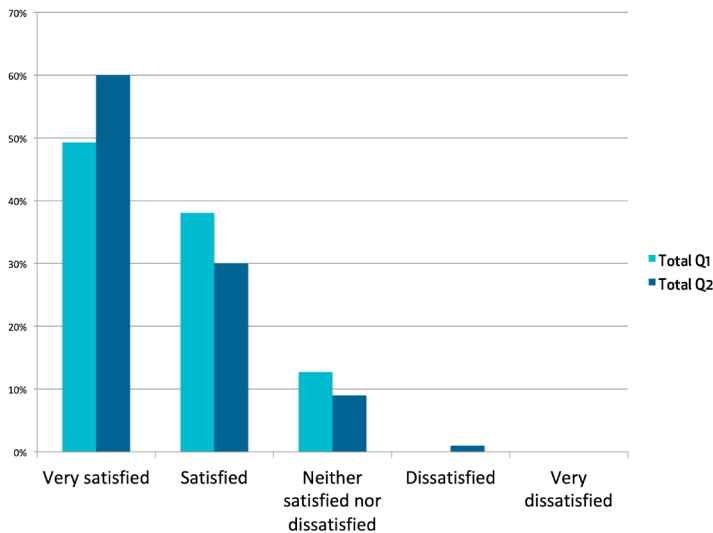

○ RECOMMENDATIONS

It's clear from the feedback that educators and parents are overwhelmed this year. JPEF will continue to be flexible and responsive to the needs of the leaders we support.
